“Yet even now,” says the Lord, “return to me with all your heart, with fasting...rend your hearts and not your clothing.” — Joel 2: 12-13

The Christian scriptures offer many images of where love, grace, forgiveness, righteousness, and healing can REALLY be found. And it is not in the “usual” places. Isn’t it as true of us today as it was of the scriptural authors? Don’t we often look for wholeness and happiness in places that offer only temporary “good feelings” and satisfaction? Lent is a wonderfully reflective time to reassess where we are searching for meaning and purpose. We will move through stories of Jesus to find out who offers the “real deal.”

Please stand in body or spirit.

Prelude

As the Deer Martin Nystrom
Jazz Ensemble

Welcome

Threshold Moment

Solo: Olivia Rice

Hearts open, minds awake,
change us now for heaven’s sake.
Leave us not alone in hatred’s wake.
Show us how to love.
Show us how to love.
Show us how, show us how to love.

Leader: Oftentimes we believe that we must “deserve” the love we receive. We work, work, work to get approval and to feel like our life is justified — pulling our own weight, thinking that whatever life we create, and love we get, is only what we ourselves can conjure up. But the scriptures today offer the image of God as our “keeper” — always helping, always present.

Nicodemus has followed all the rules and done everything HE can do, and yet he is still looking for love — for tangible connection with God. Jesus says that he must be born “of the Spirit.” It’s not all up to simply “doing the right thing!” It is about allowing the Spirit to help birth love in our lives.

Solo:

Eyes open, shocked awake,
much to learn from our mistakes.
Draw us closer in our heartache.
Show us how to love.
Show us how to love.
Show us how, show us how to love.

Confession and Assurance

Leader: Let us join together in opening our hearts to the love of God. Before we even utter a word, we can be assured God will offer us grace and a way forward. For this reason, we can be honest with what most pains us most about our own thoughts and actions. Let us pray:

Holy and Merciful One,
in this season of discernment we come bringing our deepest longings, and our failed attempts at satisfying them.

We have often looked for love, for acceptance and security, in formulas that will assure success
at the expense of staying tuned to the Spirit’s nudge.

People: We yearn for lives that matter,
we desire relationships that thrive,
we want less regret.

Leader: At times we fail to see that you have already given us what really matters:
your love and acceptance.
You provide opportunities all around us
to make a difference in the lives of others.
You give us a fresh start each day,
inviting us to do better.

In this silence, we bring to you our pleas for openness to a different way of living.

Silence

My friends, be assured by the Psalmist who says,
“The Lord will keep your life... your going out and your coming in
from this time on and forevermore.”
Let us respond together:

All:* We open our hearts, our minds, our souls, our vision
to the ways of love
created by God,
embodied in Jesus,
and already moving in us by the Spirit.
We are forgiven, loved, and freed!
Amen!

Peace

Leader: The love and peace of Christ be with you!

People: And also with you!

Leader: I invite you to pass this love and peace to one another by crossing your arms across your chest, indicating love, and then opening them with the common two-finger sign for peace, [remembering to send some of that love and peace to those worshipping remotely].

Please stand in body or spirit.

Hymn #258 When I Survey the Wondrous Cross
(Gold Hymnal/Hymns for the Family of God)

- 1. When I survey the wondrous cross On which the Prince of glory died, My richest gain I count but loss, And pour contempt on all my pride.
- 2. Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, Save in the death of Christ my God; All the vain things that charm me most, I sacrifice them to His blood.
- 3. See, from His head, His hands, His feet, Sorrow and love flow mingled down: Did e'er such love and sorrow meet, Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Please be seated.

Scripture Reading

John 3: 1-17

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God."

Jesus answered him, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above."

Nicodemus said to him, "How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?"

Jesus answered, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you,

'You must be born from above.' The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit." Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?"

Jesus answered him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things? Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man.

And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him."

The Message Pastor Kris

Hymn #107 Amazing Grace Gold Hymnal

- 1. Amazing grace! How sweet the sound That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost but now am found, Was blind but now I see.
- 2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears relieved; How precious did that grace appear The hour I first believed!

3. The Lord has promised good to me, His word my hope secures; He will my shield and portion be As long as life endures.

WE RESPOND

Prayers of the People

Leader: In this season of Lent, we are joining together in prayer using an ancient form in the church. The Greek words, "Kyrie Eleison" mean "God, have mercy on us" and we learned a simple chant last week that we will be repeating throughout Lent. We will be led in various intercessions—prayers in categories—followed our sung "Kyrie" response to each one. The repetition of this beautiful "Kyrie" is itself a prayer. God's mercy is a gift of love, given freely to us.

Solo first time.

Ky-ri - e E-le-i - son, Ky-ri - e E-le-i - son, Ky-ri - e E-le-i - son, Ky-ri - e E-le-i - son.

Prayers for the World

Leader: Loving Creator, we come to you asking for the strength of your help in this world. We struggle as we find so much to be chaotic and overwhelming. You set this world in motion and gave us the ability to co-create the future with you. Help us trust your presence in the midst of all we do not understand. Show us how to love especially when all is not within our control. We pray this day for... God have mercy.

In this singing we lift up this world to you with our love:

All: (Sung)
Kyrie Eleison, Kyrie Eleison
Kyrie Eleison, Kyrie Eleison

Prayers for Our Community

Loving Sovereign, we come to you asking for the strength of your help in our communities. We do not see things from the same perspective and it is causing divisions among us. Show us how to love across these divides of how things "ought to be." So many are ailing from circumstances of body, mind, and spirit beyond their control. We pray this day for ...God have mercy. In this singing we lift up this community to you with our love:

All: (Sung)
Kyrie Eleison, Kyrie Eleison
Kyrie Eleison, Kyrie Eleison

Prayers for Our Relationships

Loving Parent, we come to you asking for the strength of your help in our homes and relationships. Open us to feel the bond of your Spirit between us and among us, especially when we are not sure how to help each other. We pause in silence as we each lift up in our hearts the relationships in our lives that need your love and transformation...God have mercy. In this singing we lift up each other to you with our love:

All: (Sung)
Kyrie Eleison, Kyrie Eleison
Kyrie Eleison, Kyrie Eleison

Prayers for Our Selves

Lover of Our Souls, we come to you asking for the strength of your help to love ourselves. Help us to break out of the prisons we have made for ourselves, believing that we have to work our way into love and acceptance. Help us really know deep down in our bones that it is your already-present and ever-present love that is the bedrock of our lives and that this love can be multiplied through us in this world, in our communities, and in the lives with whom we intersect each day. God have mercy. In this singing we open ourselves to your love:

All: (Sung)

Kyrie Eleison, Kyrie Eleison
Kyrie Eleison, Kyrie Eleison

Leader: And so, as your people following in the ways of your Son, Jesus, who set the pattern of love in moving beyond control into the Mystery of the Spirit, we pray with confidence the prayer that he taught us:

The Prayer of Jesus

ALL: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.
